

As Ireland's largest envelope manufacturer, we have continued to operate through this crisis, safely supplying essential services as our country battled Covid19.

As you prepare to re-open your business or welcome customers safely back onto your premises we are here for you too.

Lots of things may have changed in our world since March 2020 but one thing that has remained the same is our commitment to our customers, big and small, and the quality of product and service we deliver.

To find out how we can help you and your customers sustain and regrow your business call our sales team today. We have a huge selection of post and packaging products available both ex-stock and to order. We can customise envelopes of all types and we also provide bags & boxes too.

Working together we will get through this.
