MODERN SLAVERY STATEMENT

Langstane Press Limited is a British distributor of business products which are broadly produced by European and US-based suppliers/manufacturers. As a distributor we use a variety of third-party logistics suppliers.

Although not obliged to make a statement, we support the principles of the Modern Slavery Act and recognise the risk of slavery within the supply chain of which we are a part.

Langstane Press Limited is committed to ensuring that its business dealings are carried out in compliance with the relevant laws and, in doing so, we endorse the implementation and promotion of ethical business practices to protect workers from being abused and exploited.

With such a broad range of suppliers it is inevitable that many will produce or source products or raw materials, outside Europe and many do use production facilities in parts of the world which are in more danger of such crimes.

We ask all our manufacturers, suppliers and business partners to confirm that they take all reasonable steps necessary to ensure, at every point in their supply chain there is no risk of people trafficking or modern slavery and that the welfare and wellbeing of its employees or those working on its behalf is of the highest standards. The choice of suppliers is influenced by the responses and risks of abuse identified within this process.
