SINCE 1760

Great British Design & Innovation Since 1760

With over 261 years of heritage, the Salter brand has become synonymous with providing high quality and innovative household products. Originating as a family business and now the UK's oldest housewares brand, Salter is as trusted today as it always has been and is working continuously to make great products to enhance everyday lifestyles. Combining precision and elegant design, we have used our expertise in food preparation to bring you the very best cookware and kitchen accessories.

Easy to Read Display

No more squinting, to see the weight measurements of your ingredients as you cook. The Salter Mini Max scale has a large easy to read display. Switch between metric and imperial measurement at the touch of a button.

Slim and Compact

This modern scale is perfectly suited for any kitchen. The slim and compact design of our Mini-Max scale makes it easy to neatly store away when it is not needed.

Add and Weigh

Add and weigh multiple ingredients in one bowl for super speedy food preparation. This feature will help you save time on the washing up by reducing those extra measuring bowls.

Aquatronic

The Aquatronic feature measures liquids in ml or fl.oz. Pop your measuring jug away, you can measure a variety of liquids including wine, milk, stock, cream etc.
